CLASS PROPHECY

While going on a business trip to Neptune in the Earth's new interplanetary Spaceship, Terra six my mind traveled over time and space to my graduation. I wondered what had become of the Class of 1959. To my wondering, I began daydreaming. In my dream the hazy outline of the past enshrouded me taking me over the earth finding my old classmates.

I was taken first to my hometown where I decided to visit the new consolidated school, Vanwell; you can imagine my surprise when I discovered that Reggie Luzader was Superintendent! While inside the school building, Bill Cole, a Board of Education Member, came to see the Superintendent and ordered the children to get to work.

After I had toured the new school building, I decided to take a walk around the city. Vanlue's government had changed since I had been in high school, and I was surprised when I read on one of the windows in the Municipal Building "Mary Fiegel, Manager." Mary's managing ability had finally paid off.

When I tired of the buildings and scenery in Vanlue, I decided to look at the surrounding countryside. Tom Hagerty owned most of the land surrounding Vanlue. He acquired it by purchasing from families leaving the vicinity. He was also a happily married man.

About three miles from the Vanlue Corporation limit was Gary Graves factory. He had developed a new car, called the J-Sparrow. His car is great competition for Ford.

As I traveled from Vanlue to New York, I thought about my classmates who had stayed in Vanlue, but I was more curious to find out about my classmates who had gone to New York. As I stepped from the atomic powered subway in New York, I saw Bob Kitchel. Bob was a famous physicist, who had discovered a way to make water feel dry. He was also the President of the Kitchel Foundation Incorporated, which was an organization for scientists only.

While in New York, I went to a very famous church for services; as I knelt to pray, I glanced up and saw David Shaferly, the Bishop of the church. I knew David had always wanted to be a minister, and I thought he had been very successful.

I traveled on to Boston and stopped in to see one of my friends. She asked me if I should like to go to a lecture. I told her yes. Powell Prater was the speaker; he was classed with the great orators of the world -- second only to Cicero.

While leaving a theater in Boston, I saw an old friend, Connie Wilcox; she was now married and had six children. She was busy being a mother and keeping up her social prestige.

From Boston I took a taxi and went to Washington D. C. Charlene Smith was the First Lady. Her ability in filing proved useful to her since her husband, the President, needed someone to keep things in order.

From Washington I boarded a plane and headed for the West Coast. I deviated a little from my course and went to Florida instead. I decided to take a rest and reside a while in one of Miami's plush hotels. While on the beach I ran head-on into Esther Fruth. I found she was head of the Home Economic's Department. She had started as an assistant but had been promoted until she had become head of the department. She knew all there was to know about the new method of cooking with atomic power.

I boarded a train in Miami to go to Texas. When I arrived in Texas at the famous King's Ranch, Joe Saltzman met me at the station and took me to the ranch in one of the new J-Sparrow cars now on the market. Joe had become an agricultural teacher. He taught school in the fall and worked on the King's Ranch in the summer.

After my visit to the King's Ranch, I rented a J-Sparrow car and drove to Arizona. The Championship Bowling Contests were being held in Phoenix. Ronald Heck was again defending his title for the eighty-first week.

I strolled over to the swimming pool, and who do you think I saw! Linda Herman! She was a famous movie actress on location in Arizona. We had lunch together and talked about old times.

Marlene Smith was also in Phoenix; she was secretary to the Director of Warner Brothers. We had a long chat, and she told me all about her job.

I decided to leave directly for San Francisco instead of going to Montana as I had planned. In San Francisco I found four of my classmates. Nancy Bame was an apprentice to Edith Head, the famous dress designer. Miss Head said that Nancy had great talent and had every indication that she would become a prima designer someday.

Since I wanted to go to a theater, I asked some friends if they would recommend a salon in which to have my hair done. They all recommended "Shirley's." The proprietor was none other than my old classmate Shirley Kliesch. She had salons throughout the world, her headquarters in San Fransisco.

After I had my hair done, I decided to go to a near by gym for some calisthenics. Leading the calisthenics was none other than Rose Thompson. She was the coach of the International Tennis Team. Her team won the Davis Cup in the Olympic games in Australia. This was quite an achievement since this was the first time a girls' team had ever won the Davis Cup for the United States.

After I left the gym, I took a walk in the sunlight. I walked past a playground where children were swinging and playing games. I stopped for a moment to gaze at them and smiled. Just then I saw Ruth McCormick. She was the head of the school which took care of only elite children.

I was aroused from my daydream when I heard someone say, "Fasten your seat belts." I smiled to myself as I thought about my dream and thought it surely was fantasy; just as I thought this, I had a queer feeling. My inner instincts seem to tell me that I really had had a trip. I wondered if such a thing could be. But who knows!

CLASS WILL

We, the 1959 Senior Class of Vanlue High School, coming to the realization that our school days are quickly coming to an end, declare this to be our last will and testament.

Article I	Nancy Barne wills her bowlegs to anyone who can get along with them.
Article II	Bill Cole wills his "swing" to Sue Blair.
Article III	Mary Fiegel wills her position in the office to Eugene Morgan.
Article IV	Esther Fruth wills her ability to sew to the Junior home economics girls who dislike it.
Article V	Gary Graves wills his ability to sing to Jane Wiseley.
Article VI	Tom Hagerty wills his ability to miss F.F.A. meetings to Jerry Baughman.
Article VII	Ronald Heck wills his ability to sleep in school to Bill Nichols.
Article VIII	Linda Herman wills her ability to cheerlead to Dave Phillips.
Article IX	Bob Kitchel wills his frequent conferences with Mr. Hinkle to Dave Greene.
Article X	Shirley Kliesch wills her red hair to the chemistry lab for experiments.
Article XI	Reggie Luzader wills his ability to skip study halls to David Patrick.
Article XII	Ruth McCormick wills her ability to sing to Betty Darst and Calvin Saltzman.
Article XIII	Powel Prater wills his ability to get in late and run laps to Paul Brandeberry.
Article XIV	Joe Saltzman wills his story books in Physics to "Chubber Stout."
Article XV	David Shaferly wills his ability to keep out of trouble to Bob Marshall.
Article XVI	Charlene Smith wills her love for history to Douglas Clark and Ruth Dyer.
Article XVII	Marlene Smith wills her ability to get along with teachers to Annette Naeyaert.
Article XVIII	Rose Thompson wills her love for basketball to Lawrence Higgenbotham.
Article XIX	Rosemary Turner wills her nickname "Formosa" to Carol Fruth.
Article XX	Connie Wilcox wills the position of head majorette to Ronnie Breitigam and Janet Shaffer.

In the sight of witnesses we hereby sign and seal this, our last will and testament.

SCHOOL CALENDAR

JANUARY

1 Happy New Year
5 First day of school after Christmas Vacation. Hold on to your hats, here we go again.
9 Eleven of the Seniors had a wonderful time; the dinner, not the tests.
14 Happy Birthday, Gary!
15 Group pictures taken, more work for the Seniors.
19 No school because of snow. Hurray!!
20 Exams delayed for further studying.
21 Happy Birthday, Rosemary!
22 High water. Anyone for swimming?
23 Senior girls, what did you do in office practice class without Mrs. Wood?
26 Exams again. Don't those teachers ever give up?
27 The home economics girls served lunch to the School Board. Nervous? girls.
28 Shirley K. sure fell for it and has a black and blue mark on her knee to prove it.
29 Ruth M. got new glasses. Can you see the boys better now?
30 Hope the teachers had a nice time at Arlington. The students had a wonderful day.

FEBRUARY

1 Linda stuck her finger with a pin. Hurt yourself?
2 Grade cards were passed out. Oh, well some days are like that.
3 Esther and Rose both had a toothache, Ouch!
6 Happy Birthday, Nancy!
9 Reggie forgot to take Shirley's Books to American Problems class. Better remember the next time, Reg.
10 High water. Anyone get wet?
12 Happy Birthday, Abe?
13 Powell took his correct seat in English class. How about that?
17 The Seniors had a riot, they got out of all morning classes.
18 Bob and Joe were fighting in English class. Who Won?
19 Mary fell up stairs. She was all shook up.
21 Elevator Dinner. Bill, did you like the olives?
22 Happy Birthday, George!
23 Just another day of school.
27 The Senior cheerleaders wore their red dresses. Bright kids!

MARCH

3 Happy Birthday, Connie!
6 Term papers due in American Problems. Glad that's over with.
9 Bob had lipstick on his shirt! What happened?
12 Grade cards again. Look at those grades.
17 Ronnie didn't quite make the tardy bell.
18 Surprise! Ronnie was early this morning.
19 Bill just about went to sleep in American Problems Class. Out too late!!
20 A bright spring day. Everyone had spring fever, Rose did, that's for sure.
23 Here we go again, Rosemary lost her dictionary.
24 Marlene finally remembered to bring a pencil to school after Connie threatened to buy her one.
25 What's happening in office practice class? The girls are always losing something.
27 Tom was late to school, in fact he even missed American Problem's Class.
31 End of the month. The Seniors have only thirty-three more days of school.

APRIL

1 Gary came back after a round with the mumps. Just in time for the scholarship tests. How lucky can you get?
2 David is still passing out milk at noon. Kids in Vanlue like to drink mild, don't they Dave?
3 Nancy seems to know what is wrong with the Senior boys when they are absent. Wonder how?
6 It seems some of the Senior boys forgot they were going to Findlay today.
7 Mrs. Wood, do Charlene or Marlene confuse you when they ask for an excuse?
8 The teachers are very popular with the Seniors since they got their Senior year booklet.
14 No American Problems Class, but the Seniors still had to have their terms done. H. E. still reigns!
15 Rosemary, are you catching a cold or are you just sneezing for fun?
16 Esther forgot to take Mary's books to American Problems class so Mary had to go back after them.
20 Teachers, if it seemed quieter than usual this afternoon, it's because seven of the Senior girls went to Finlay for "On The Job Week."
21 Linda, who was the person going the wrong way on a one-way street?
22 Charlene while working in Pattersons found out she couldn't tell a ten dollar bill from a one dollar bill. Need glasses?
23 Seven of the Senior girls didn't have to wait all day for the bad news; they got their grade cards early.
27 Senior girls are back for a whole day. Think you can stand it? Well try anyway.
29 Happy Birtyday, Esther!
30 Six more school days till the Senior trip. Be patient Seniors!

MAY

10 The Seniors are on their way to Washington and New York. Have fun!
24 Graduation Day;Look out World, Here we come.
